Bing: A Step Away From Paradise

When I started reading - " A step away from paradise", I knew in the mind of my heart that this is my journey as well. A journey that took me to Mount Kanchenjunga, Demoshong (the Hidden Land of Beyul) and beyond. Walking along with Tulshuk Lingpa (the crazy lama), his family and hundreds of followers to reach a land of beauty, love and compassion. " Now times are difficult. Everywhere we

A Step Away from Paradise: The True Story of a Tibetan

A Step Away from Paradise tells the story of Tibet's Tulshuk Lingpa; a visionary lama who in 1962 launched an expedition to what he and his followers believed to be the land of immortality described in twelfth-century Tibetan tradition. With over 300 disciples; he ventured up a remote Himalayan mountain at the Nepal-Sikkim border in order to 'open the way' to a hidden land of plenty

A Step Away from Paradise weaves their stories together with a bit of my own, while placing it all in the context of Tibetan Buddhism and the legends of the hidden valleys of immortality reputed to lie waiting to be discovered.

a Step Away From Paradise The True Story O by Thomas K

A Step Away from Paradise brought me back to Sikkim and I also related to the yogi's followers who were searching for salvation in another realm. As I was reading about the trials of Tulshuk Lingpa, I was imagining him in monastic temple we had visited in the country.

A Step Away From Paradise is the story of Tulshuk Lingpa, a modern-day lama who led hundreds to seek the promised land of Beyul Demoshong (the hidden valley) in 1962. The writer seamlessly blends the accounts of those who went on this journey to weave a fascinating tale which leaves the reader wanting answers and makes them ask
