Cheer the F**K Up: How to Save your Best Friend: Amazon.co

‘Cheer the f*ck up!’ was only ever meant to be an open diary of sorts to offer insight into something I know many people take as being a personal journey best left behind closed doors and a doctors surgery, but I saw no value in simply having this conversation with myself, there was no point as far as I saw it. Mental illness can impact anyone, and it isn’t something that should be

Cheer the F*ck Up! The original intention for this blog was to use writing as a simple source of strength & honest reflection to help work through my diagnosis, but it soon became a point for me to help understand myself as I came to terms with losing my Mum to cancer as well as coming to terms with the loss of my Dad 2 years previously which I had steadfastly & stubbornly refused to accept
