Michelle Obama: A Photographic Journey by Antonia Felix

I love this beautiful photographic journey of Michelle Obama's journey and time in the White House. I will forever remember the stunning intelligent woman and family that I came to love so dearly. She worked to encourage the children to eat healthy and did her best to tackle every issue "head on".

Michelle Obama A Photographic Journey

What's your journey of becoming? Based on Michelle Obama's bestselling memoir, this gorgeous journal contains more than 150 inspiring questions and quotes to help you discover your story. 'It's not about being perfect. It's not about where you get yourself in the end. There's power in allowing yourself to be known and heard, in owning your unique story, in using your authentic voice.' Michelle

A personal portrait of Barack and Michelle Obama - Their

I met Michelle Obama in 2006 at her home in Chicago. She invited me into her home and proceeded to balance her checkbook, respond to her Blackberry, and talk at the same time to both of her young daughters. Like Barack, she was witty, kind, smart, and very attached to her daughters and husband. I also noticed that she did some gentle ribbing to make him laugh and not take things too serious.

Bing: Michelle Obama A Photographic Journey

With 140 photographs, inspiring quotes, and excerpts from historic speeches, this stunning volume celebrates beloved First Lady Michelle Obama. Although the book focuses on 2007 to 2016, it also covers the pre-White House years, from childhood to law school to Obama's first campaign.

Michelle Obama: A Photographic Journey

The photographic journey takes us through her younger years, family, achievements, elegant fashion, and explores her impact on and place in history. The focus is on 2007 to 2016, spanning Barack Obama's first campaign, with Michelle by his side, to her multifaceted experience during the course of two terms in the White House.
