photographs (and there are credits for the photos - as a photographer I truly appreciate that,) is wonderful, as is the reproduction quality. The larger size and quality also mean that if you wish to save one or more pages for mounting and/or framing, the photo(s) will be very nicely presented.

The pages are loose and each day you move the date that has passed to the back of the stack. The daily pages are in a slanted lucite stand and I keep mine on an end-table in the TV room. The 8 X 8 photos are excellent and contain information about Paris landmarks, many of which are new to me, a long-time Francophile.
