Piece Petting: Never pet your piece in public. Off-duty cops and on-duty crooks are the worst about this, but concealedcarry citizens are a close second. Bluntly put, you guys pet, pat, fondle and grope your concealed roscoes in subways, supermarkets, bars and banks like you're checking on a frisky pet weasel.

Setting the Record Straight About the Sale of River Farm. For nearly 100 years, the American Horticultural Society (AHS) has called Alexandria, Virginia home. Our national nonprofit, dedicated to sharing the art and science of growing plants throughout the country, was founded in Alexandria in 1922. In the early 1970s, we purchased and moved our headquarters to River Farm, former farmland that, centuries ago, was owned by George Washington.
