I went all in when I first started writing 'The Unlikely Thru-Hiker'; I made a point to write 1,000 words a day and then it went up to 1,500 words. I didn't worry about spelling, punctuations or grammar during the first draft. I just wanted to get the story down. If I worried about all the writing errors during those early drafts, then the word count goal would have been much harder to
