Praise for UNFORGETTING “There has never been a book about the Latinx experience quite like Roberto Lovato’s Unforgetting. Here is a voice that is outraged, philosophical, thoughtful, blunt, emotional, and, above all, fiercely independent. In this illuminating and insightful memoir, Lovato journeys into the underworlds of the fraught

Unforgetting: A Memoir of Family, Migration, Gangs, and the Revolution in the Americas by Roberto Lovato

Growing up as the child of Salvadoran immigrants in 1970s California, Roberto Loveato is perhaps more remarkable for escaping the gang he joined as a teenager than for having joined one in the first place. After enough dangerous encounters, including seeing a friend shot in the face in a coke deal g
